

Thursday 24.09.09

08:00 12:00	Registration 08:00 - 12:00
09:00	Wildt DE	Plenary talk: Reproduction biology Sex, wildlife and intensive management
10:00	van Kesteren F	Reproductive physiology of Ethiopian wolves (Canis simensis)
10:15	Finkenwirth C	Pregnancy diagnosis in the Iberian lynx (Lynx pardinus) based on a specific urinary pregnancy signal
10:30	Coffee break & poster session
11:00	Nichols K	A non-invasive assessment of the oestrus cycle of European captive-held visayan warty pig (Sus cebifrons negrinus).
11:15	Morden CJ	Faecal hormones as a non-invasive population monitoring and management method for woodland caribou
11:30	Wachter B	Cub survival and reproductive health of female cheetahs depends on environmental conditions and reproductive history, not lack of genetic diversity
11:45	Festl W	Data on reproduction in captive European mink (Mustela lutreola) kept for ex-situ conservation: Periodic cycles in breeding success – a natural phenomenon, or an artefact of management?
12:00	Saragusty J	Skewed birth sex ratio and premature mortality in elephants
12:15	Closing ceremony & poster awards
12:30	Lunch

Removal of posters

13:45	Zoo visit
open end ...	