

Curriculum Vitae

Andrew Tilker

Leibniz Institute for Zoo and Wildlife Research (IZW) (PhD Student / Junior Research Group: Biodiversity and Biogeography of Southeast Asia)

Public Relations

Phone +49 (0)30 5168 722

Fax +49 (0)30 5126 104

Email tilker@izw-berlin.de

Job description

PhD student leading the fieldwork in Vietnam for the JRG ScreenForBio project.

Research fields and interests

Ecology and conservation. Special focus: Southeast Asian mammals.

Professional appointments

Since 10/2014 Associate Conservation Scientist at Global Wildlife Conservation.

... ..

Education

2014 M.A degree. University of Texas at Austin. Major: Ecology. Thesis title: Estimating site occupancy for four threatened mammals in Southeastern Laos.

2006 B.S. degree. Midwestern State University. Major: Biology.

Selected publications

Gray T, Thongsamouth K, Tilker A. (2015) Recent camera-trap records of Owston's Civet Chrotogale owstoni and other small carnivores from Xe Sap National Protected Area, southern Lao PDR. Small Carnivore Conservation, 51, 29-33.

Patents and licences, contacts to industry

...

Teaching and education, outreach

...

Professional roles and services to the scientific community

...

Awards, honours

...